VARIOUS MATTERS

Full lists today.

The moon was new on Sunday evening.

Holiday crowds filled the streets all day Saturday.

Don't forget New Year's whist tonight at Foresters' hall—adv.

At present there are thirty-five patients at the Backus hospital.

Schools in a number of districts will close Friday for the holiday vacation.

The river is well bordered with ice, and the smaller coves were safe for skaters on Saturday.

The dust on Saturday greatly annoyed merchants, marring the effect of their window displays.

Some handsome ground pine for Christmas wreaths has been brought to town from Sandy Beach, Mohegan.

Yesterday was the coldest morning of the season so far, mercury from 15 degrees to 18 degrees, being reported.

During the holidays and longer it warranted, Mahrey will serve from 3 to 6, afternoon tea, at 25c. Try one after doing your shopping—adv.

December 13 is St. Lucy's day; in the English, "America," the leading Catholic weekly in the United States has been placed on file at the Otis library.

A marriage license has been issued in Worcester to John A. Johnson, 45, foreman, Thompson, Conn., Catherine Peterson, 39, housework, Thompson, Conn.

The December issue of The Churchman says: Trinity church, Norwich, will soon be handsomely equipped with electric lights, the gift of a parishioner in memory of his wife.

The Christmas story in the Springfield Sunday Republican was "The Truancy of a Sunday Man," by Mrs. Charlotte Molyneux Holloway, of New London, a writer and lecturer, who has many local admirers.

Members of the Catholic Women's club, Mrs. P. H. Harriman, president, visited the almshouse Saturday afternoon, leaving fruit, cake, candy, magazines, etc., for the old people of Superintendent Bailey's household.

The Connecticut Horticulture society held its annual meeting in Hartford Friday night and passed resolutions favoring the adoption of a parcels post system in this country. John F. Hines was re-elected president of the society.

The Rev. William P. Newton has been appointed state collector for the Baptist churches, and has secured an outfit which includes a baby organ and a megaphone. And in addition he has told the executive committee that to facilitate his travel he needs an automobile.—Hartford Times.

Containing a complete list of the automobile laws with detailed explanations, a list of all the various makes, a table of horsepower ratings and a table of fees, the information book just gotten out by the secretary of state and being distributed by members of automobile clubs, is proving a most valuable handbook for auto owners.

The following premiums were awarded by the state board of agriculture for the best exhibitions of the state: Class A—Dent. Division 1, early yellow, A. G. Guley, Storrs; Class B, Flint corn, division 1, early yellow, Harrison L. Hamilton, Ellington; Louis C. Edwards, Ellington; division 2, other than yellow, No. 1322, W. P. Johnson, Columbia.

Local members of the D. A. R. were greatly disturbed Saturday morning to learn of the theft of Miss S. R. MacLay, the Washington clerk of the society, who has confessed to Mrs. Scott that she has stolen several thousand dollars from the national D. A. R. by abstracting money from letters. Some of the Norwich Daughters remember meeting Miss MacLay while in Washington.

Having returned from his vacation, Rev. William A. Glida preached in St. Patrick's church, Sunday, from the gospel for the third Sunday in Advent, John 1:1-18. His text was the evangelist's rebuke to his questioners who had been blind to Christ's presence among them; and from their punishment were adduced proofs of the penalty which must await those similarly ignorant in these latter days. The pulpit was ably and convincingly set forth, in language strong and choice.

BROKE HIS ELBOW.
Oliver Peckham injured while attempting to jump over Hitching Post.

Oliver Peckham, aged 10, the youngest son of E. E. Peckham of the East Side, broke his elbow and badly splintered the upper bone Sunday evening about 8 o'clock. The accident happened when Oliver attempted to jump over the hitching post, made of an old hot-water boiler, in front of the house of Addison Avery on Hamilton avenue. He slipped and fell on his elbow. Dr. Witter attended the boy, who bore his painful injury with fortitude, walking the half-mile from the scene of the accident to his home, half of the way unassisted.

Spooner Orchestra.
During the late evangelistic services the musicians who assisted the chorus organized an orchestra to be known as the Spooner orchestra. The following are the members: H. L. Yerrington, clarinet; H. W. Carpenter, cornet; O. E. Nott, first violin; T. A. Linton, second violin; Miss Alice Woodward, pianist. Weekly rehearsals are being held on Tuesday evenings.

Dr. Farnsworth Goes to New Haven.
Dr. Frederick Farnsworth, accompanied by his nurse, Fred Staples, left New London Saturday for New Haven, where he is to enter a hospital. Dr. Farnsworth suffered a shock some months ago, from which he has not fully recovered.

Will Make Changes.
John E. Hawkins, who recently purchased the Bowtell avenue house, has an architect at work on plans to alter it into a store and tenements.

Ellis Sweet and Hyman Feltman played in New London Sunday evening in an orchestra at a wedding.

Harold Hempstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hempstead of Groton, is confined to his home by illness. Mr. Hempstead is a student in the Norwich Free Academy.

Mrs. Byron Frink and son Harold have returned to East Great Plain after spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Christianson of North Main street.

GOING TO CHINA TO OPEN DENTAL PARLORS.
Dr. Joseph Bootland Given Farewell Banquet to His Friends.

A farewell banquet, which was a complete surprise at the same time, was tendered to Dr. Joseph Bootland Sunday evening at his home, on Church street, by a party of sixteen of his men friends, who took this way of showing their regard for the popular dentist, who has just sailed for his fourth year's voyage with the King Dental company. Assisted by Mrs. Bootland, who was left to the secret, the conspirators carried out the surprise successfully, and the doctor gracefully fitted into the circle of sixteen which he was invited to join at the table, where the excellent turkey supper which was provided paved the way for an evening of delightful sociability.

Dr. Bootland expects to leave here on Tuesday or Wednesday to join a friend in New Haven. Their plans are to leave New Haven about the 25th of the month for Shanghai, China, where they intend to locate in the dental business. Dr. Bootland is a native of Scotland, but has been a good part of the world in his day. For some time he was in South Africa, and ten years ago he came to Boston, becoming associated with Dr. T. J. King and maintaining that connection ever since. Under King Dental company name he spent a number of months in Florida, then in the middle west and at numerous places in Connecticut and New England states before he came here. His departure will be regretted, but the best wishes of a large number of friends will accompany him and his wife in their new location.

MOOSUP MAN'S BODY HAS NOT BEEN CLAIMED.
Son Has Positively Identified His Father, However—Supposed He Had Gone Home.

Up to Saturday night the body of Frank D. Cluett of Moosup, who was found dead in bed with a woman at a Woosonock hotel last week, had not been claimed by relatives. The body was positively identified by his son, F. D. Cluett, Jr., who resides in Woosonock, and another son, Patrick, aged 17, also residing with him.

Mrs. F. D. Cluett, Jr., said that her husband's father paid a visit to them Saturday, November 27, and stayed over Sunday, when he left his son's house, saying he would return home to Moosup. That was the last seen of him by his relatives in Woosonock. They heard nothing from him after that.

The first news that the dead man's son received of the tragic death of his father was when he read the newspaper. Mrs. Cluett, Jr., said that her husband's father was 60 years old and a widower. He has four sons, the two who reside in Woosonock, and two other sons who reside with two sisters in Montreal, P. Q. The two daughters of the dead man are married, F. D. Cluett, Sr., told his son when he visited him that he was working in Moosup and intended to return home to resume work.

NORWICH DELEGATES HOME FROM WASHINGTON.
Vice President Tracy to Report at the Meeting of the Board of Trade This Week—Had Profitable Trip.

President F. W. Cary and W. B. Young returned on Saturday and E. A. Tracy on Sunday from their trip to Washington as delegates from the local Board of Trade to the national convention and afterwards congress. There were 2,000 delegates in attendance, 15 being from this state, including Governor Weeks.

Governor Weeks spoke before the congress on the opening day and was entertained by John Barrett, director of the bureau of American republics. The Washington clerk of the society, who has confessed to Mrs. Scott that she has stolen several thousand dollars from the national D. A. R. by abstracting money from letters. Some of the Norwich Daughters remember meeting Miss MacLay while in Washington.

Major L. M. Simonson from Hartford was here Sunday for a visit to the local Salvation Army, speaking at the meetings in the morning, afternoon and evening. In the evening the members of the local headquarters down through Main street and Franklin square and up Bath street to the corner at Chapman's flatiron building, where they halted, and sang a number of hymns before returning to headquarters for the meeting.

On and after that date motor vehicles of all kinds, carrying passengers and mail, must be equipped with red and white figures. Cars of manufacturers, dealers and livermen will carry markers with white backgrounds and red figures.

All cars carrying manufacturers' dealers' or livermen's markers must bear in addition on the rear the operator's markers, which are black backgrounds and yellow figures. For example, the number plates will be made as follows:

Private owners—C249S.
Manufacturers—C2M.
Dealers—C2D.
Livermen—C2L.

The state secretary informs the police that owners of motor cars bearing markers of the kind specified will not be complying with the law after the beginning of the year.

UNION SERVICE AT SECOND CHURCH.
Evangelistic Meeting Will Be Held There on Tuesday Evening—Dr. Bixler of New London to Speak.

The union evangelistic meeting this week will be held at the Second Congregational church, Rev. Dr. J. W. Bixler of New London, will be the address. He is about to start on a three months' tour of the Holy Land. It was intended last week to have the meeting at the First Baptist, but the place has been changed to the Second church.

Types Will Affiliates.

JOHN DONAHUE RECEIVED INJURIES WHILE ALONE IN PUMP HOUSE AT GAS AND ELECTRIC PLANT—TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

There came near being a fatality at the gas and electric plant on Saturday afternoon, when John Donahue, an employe at the gashouse for many years, was caught in the gearing in the pumphouse and his life saved by the clothing clogging the machine and throwing off the belt. As it was, he received severe injuries in the right side and arm, and was taken to the hospital, where he will remain for some time. It was stated on Sunday that it was not considered that his wounds were dangerous, but it will probably be some time before he will be able to be at work again.

It was after two o'clock when Mr. Donahue went to the pumphouse where he was located the pump for filling the tank. The water being used in the plant, and is drawn from the river. The pump house is away from the other buildings and Mr. Donahue was there alone at the time to oil the machinery. He had completed the oiling and turned about when the back of his coat was caught by the gear. The pump was back in the machinery, his coat and clothes were pulled off to the gearing, so binding it that the belt was thrown off, but not before he had received such injuries as to give serious indications.

He tried to make his way out of the pumphouse and went to the building and shut off the power from the motor before he spoke to his fellow workmen and asked for assistance. When his condition was seen and facts learned he was at once taken to his home, where Dr. P. H. Hines' mother, Mrs. Frank T. Brown, of Perkins avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barstow of Chicago are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Olive W. Platt, of Washington street.
